DATED: 21.11.2005

P.C.:

By this application, respondent no.1 seeks modification of the order made on 28.9.2005. When the order was passed, the applicant was present in Court. Therefore, we see no reason to vary or modify that order in any manner.

That order itself has made it clear that the employee shall be at liberty to seek payment of provident fund and gratuity accumulations. Such application, therefore, can be made to the original petitioner-institution. That remedy being open, there is no need to modify the order. The application for modification of the order is rejected.
